

IMAGE OF AN UNKNOWN YOUNG WOMAN

By Elinor Cook

ACCESSIBILITY PACK₁

WELCOME!

We're so excited to welcome you to the TFTI building, and to our performance of 'Image of an Unknown Young Woman'!

This booklet outlines a general guide to our facilities and explains what you can expect from your visit.

Please don't hesitate to contact Karina, our Marketing and Educational Outreach officer, (kl1561@york.ac.uk) with any questions.

CONTENTS

TICKETS:

Booking online- 5

Booking by phone- 5

GETTING HERE:

By car- 6

By bus- 6

By train- 7

By bike- 7

FACILITIES:

Toilets- 8

Vending Machines- 8

CONTENTS

THE AUDITORIUM:

Access- 9

Seating- 9

THE SHOW:

Content Warnings- 10

May Contain (sensory information)- 10

EMERGENCIES:

Fire Evacuation- 11

First Aid- 11

HOW TO BOOK

BOOKING ONLINE:

Tickets can be booked online via the link, here: <https://bit.ly/IUYW>.

The available dates and times are listed on the website. Select the date and time that you are interested in, and then select which ticket you require.

You will have the option to book an accessible ticket, and can email tfti-events@york.ac.uk to discuss any requirements you may have.

BOOKING BY PHONE:

If you are struggling to book via the website, please contact our box office on +44 (0)1904 325220, anytime between 9am-5pm, Monday to Friday, and they will be happy to assist you.

GETTING HERE

BY CAR:

The postcode for the Scenic Stage Theatre is YO10 5DD. There is parking available at various places around the campus.

Please use the link below and select 'car parks', or 'accessible parking' to see your options:

<https://www.york.ac.uk/map/>

BY BUS:

Bus lines U1, U2, U3 and 6 stop directly on the campus, and the TFTI building (and Scenic Stage Theatre) are located a short walk away.

GETTING HERE

BY TRAIN:

The nearest station to us is York train station. Taxis are available from the station rank outside to get to the university, or alternatively, buses run from outside the station that will take you directly to campus. Look for buses U1 or U2, which leave from across the road of the station, and check that they say 'University of York' on the top.

BY BIKE:

We have plenty of bike parking on campus. Please bring your own bike lock.

FACILITIES

TOILETS:

We have four different toilets on the ground floor of the building: male, female, unisex and accessible.

Our accessible toilet is accessed with a regular handle tilt lock, rather than a radar key. There are grab bars surrounding the toilet.

VENDING MACHINES:

There are both food and drink vending machines located in the lobby of the building. These currently accept cards only.

THE AUDITORIUM

ACCESS:

The Auditorium can be accessed via a lift. Please ask a member of staff if you require assistance and they will be happy to help.

SEATING:

The performances of 'Image of an Unknown Young Woman' are being held in the Scenic Stage Theatre.

Our theatre can seat 220 people, and has removable seating for those in wheelchairs. If you book an accessible ticket, and require a spot for a wheelchair, please let us know by emailing tfti-events@york.ac.uk.

THE SHOW

CONTENT WARNINGS:

Explores challenging topics and themes, including death, violence, kidnapping, sexual violence, grief, physical abuse.

These topics are brought up and referenced throughout the play.

MAY CONTAIN:

Flashing/strobing lights throughout the performance, live fire (towards the end of the performance), sudden loud noises (throughout the performance)

THE PERFORMANCE:

The show runs for an approximate time of 90 minutes with no interval.

EMERGENCIES

EVACUATION:

If the need to evacuate arises, please await further instructions from the Responsible Person and head to the evacuation point (outside the Law and Sociology building). Please leave by the nearest exit.

FIRST AID:

Should you, or any member of your party, require first aid, please contact the nearest member of staff or student ambassador, who can radio for the first aider on duty or contact 999.